OHIO DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

Faith in Success This Fall Develops Many Gubernatorial Candidates.

of Those Who Have Put Up

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 24, 1897. The democratic state convention which will be held in this city next week promises to be the largest state convention in the history of Ohio. The democratic vote cast last fall, in spite of the large defection of gold democrats, and the republican plurality of over 50,000, was by far the largest ever cast by the party. The tatio of representation in the convention remaining the same as usual, one delegate for each 500 votes and major fraction thereof cast for Bryan electors, the number of delegates in the convention is raised to the enormous number of 957. The party is enthusiastic, in spite of the utter defeat of last fall. Its members of both factions, from leaders down to the rank and file, are firmly convinced that victory awaits the party at the polls this fall. This has resulted in an enormously extended list of candidates for governor, and the race for this numination has excited the deepest interest in all parts of the state. Nearly terest in all parts of the state. Nearly every congressional district has its candi-date for the head of the ticket, duly in-dorsed by resolution in their local conven-tions, while many other "favorite sons" are being groomed as dark horses for the race.

Candidates for the Nomination

The following are the avowed candidates for the nomination for governor: Allen W. Thurman of this city, Judge J. M. Van Meter of Chillicothe, Jno. W. Winn of Defiance, Allen V. Smalley of Upper Sandusky, John C. Welty of Canton, S. M. Hunter of Newark, Paul J. Sorg of Hamilton, A. W. Patrick of Urichsville, H. W. Chapman of Jackson and A. W. Noble of Cleveland. These have delegations pledged to them and their names will be formally presented to the convention.

Not one-third of the delegates will come to the convention pledged to any one for this nomination, however. In the early balloting they will divide their votes, and it is doubtful if any candidate will have a hundred votes on the first ballot. Many votes will doubtless be cast in the lirst balloting for men whose names have not been presented for the convented for the conven balloting for men whose names have not been presented formally to the conven-tion. In this way the dark horse candi-dates expect to get in the "push," when the opportune time comes for the springing dates expect to get in the "push." when the opportune time comes for the springing of a stampeding movement.

In the number of delegates pledged, ex-Congressman Paul J. Sorg seems to have the lead. In fact, the strength developed by him in the last week has been such as to alarm those who are opposed to his nomination. John R. McLean, who will no doubt be the candidate of the party for United States senator to succeed Senator Hanna, is said to be opposed to Sorg, and the attitude of his paper, the Enquirer, corroborates it. If there are any untavorable comments upon the candidacy of Sorg in any of the democratic papers of the state that are not promptly reprinted in the Enquirer, they have been overlooked. These attacks are based upon Sorg's record on the money question, he having gone on reather the chief reason, for McLean's opposition to him is said to be that if the party takes its candidate for governor from the southwest corner of the state, it will be urged that the nomination for senator should be taken from some other quarter.

Has Smoked Sorg Out.

Whatever the arimus may be, the attacks have had the effect of smoking Mr. Sorg out of the financial hole, and forced him to express himself on the money question. In his formal statement on the subject he admits having formerly opposed the proposition to admit silver to free coinage, but declares that he is now firmly of the opinion that free silver coinage only can bring prosperity to the country. It is hardly possible for Mr. Sorg to secure the nomination. nomination. No quarter can promise him additional strength. The delegates he has pledged to himself come entirely from his congressional district and surrounding counties. The free silver element of the party will be in overwhelming control of the convention, and will not be apt to take kindly to the candidacy of so recent a convert, no matter how ardent his support of free silver may now be. The only thing to be said in favor of Mr. Sorg along this line is that while an opponent of free silver after the national convention at Chicago last year, he supported the ticket, and the mination. No quarter can promise him last year, he supported the ticket, and the success of the democratic party in his dis-trict was undoubtedly due to the efforts he made in behalf of the candidate for Con-Besides the avowed candidates mentioned Besides the avowed candidates mentioned above, the following are spoken of in connection with the nomination for governor: Gen. Aquilla Wiley of Wooster, E. B. Finley of Bucyrus, J. H. Thomas of Springfield, R. T. Hough of Hillsboro', John J. Lentz of this city, Congressman J. A. Norton of Tiffin, L. T. Neal of Chillicothe, D. D. Donovan of Deshier and Col. James Kilbourne of this city. Probably all of these, and others, will receive votes in the con-and others, will receive votes in the convention.

The situation in this county is peculiar. The estuation in this tructed, but it is supposed that they will support Allen W. Thurman. That was the tacit understanding when they were chosen, but several of them announce that they will not vote for Thurman, even as a compliment on the first ballot. Col. Kilbourne is a warm supporter of Thurman, and so long as he is a candidate he will not permit his own name to go before the convention. candidate he will not permit his own name to go before the convention. He is not friendly to Congressman Lentz, however, and will probably become a candidate as soon as it becomes plain that Thurman cannot secure the nomination, which will probably be soon after the balloting is be-

Lentz Has a Good Chance. The friends of Congressman Lentz think he will make a good impression upon the convention, and that he will make the best candidate for a stampeding movement. It is proposed by them to have him prominently before the convention, possibly to nently before the convention, possibly to make a speech or read the resolutions, and in this way set his rod to catch the nominating lightning. But for the fact that John R. McLean is known not to think well of Lentz, it would seem not improbable that a successful attempt might be made to stampede the convention to him, if a dozen or more ballots are taken on the regular candidates without a selection being made.

the regular candidates without a selection being made.

It is a peculiar fact that there are few candidates for the other places on the ticket. John D. DeGolley of Mt. Gilead is announced as a candidate for the nomination for attorney general, and A. R. Brown of Cincinnati has the independent of the tion for attorney general, and A. R. Brown of Cincinnati has the indorsement of the people of his county for the same place on the ticket. John P. Spriggs of Monroe county is a candidate for the nomination for supreme judge, C. A. Spenny of this city for state treasurer, and Myron E. Hard of Salem for commissioner of common schools. No name has been suggested so far for either lieutenant governor or member of the state board of public works. It seems to be the general opinion that the formation of the rest of the ticket will depend entirely upon the selection for the head of the ticket, Probably the rest of the ticket will be made up from the defeated candidates for the nomination for governor.

Question About United States Senator. The party leaders are debating whether it will be best to follow the lead of the republicans and nominate a candidate for United States senator in the convention or let that pass for the present. No doubt John R. McLean will be able to dictate to John R. McLean will be able to dictate to the convention as to this matter, but it is understood that he himself is in doubt whether it will be good policy to let it be known at once that he will be the next United States senator from Ohio if the democratic party is successful at the polis this fall. The fact is that the populists, with whom the democrats hope to form an alliance again this year, are not favorable to the candidacy of McLean or any other very rich man for the Senate.

Military Attaches Abroad. The Secretary of War has detailed the following officers as military attaches of United States legations: Captain Tasker H.

Bliss, commissary of subsistence, goes to Madrid; Lieutenant John R. Williams, 3d Artillery, to Berne, and Lieutenant J. D. Chamberiain, 1st Artillery, to Vienna.
